THE LEGISLATURE

The Senate in Session for Four Minutes Last Evening.

Debate in the House on Defective Assessments.

Promissive Adjournment in Default of a Quorum.

Facts Concerning the State House Investigation.

The Capitol-Removal Question to be Settled To-Day.

What is Being Done at the Fourth Headquarters.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 5.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock P. M., pursuant to adjournment, and was called to order by Mr. HOLLAND, who nominated Mr. SHUTTAR as temporary Chairman.

Mr. PATTERSON moved that the Chair appoint a committee of three to wait upon the Governor and inform him that the Senate was in session and ready to receive any communication he might have to make.

Mr. HOLLAND objected to the motion, and the Chair appointed Messrs. PATTERSON, HOLLAND, and SHUTTAR as the committee.

Mr. PATTERSON reported that the committee had performed the duty assigned them, and that the Governor had no communication to make.

Mr. HOLLAND moved that the Senate adjourn sine die.

Mr. WAITE raised the point that the meeting was illegal, as the Senate had not been in session for twenty-four hours.

Mr. HOLLAND explained his motive for moving to adjourn, which was to prevent the passage of bills which were now before the Senate.

Mr. WAITE replied that he was not disposed to be factious, but he thought the Senate was in duty bound to act upon the bills which were before it.

Mr. HOLLAND said that he was willing to act upon the bills, but he was not willing to be compelled to do so.

Mr. WAITE replied that he was not willing to be compelled to adjourn.

Mr. HAINES explained his motive for moving to adjourn, which was to prevent the passage of bills which were before the Senate.

Mr. WAITE replied that he was not willing to be compelled to adjourn.

Mr. KING, of Cook, wanted it on record that he voted No. Never! [Laughter.]

Mr. HOLLAND's motion was then put and lost.

Mr. WAITE moved that the Senate adjourn.

Mr. HAINES was certain there had been a mistake in the vote, and moved a reconsideration.

Mr. WAITE moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table
